

Instructions: Translate Latin to English and English to Latin

1) Illō ipsō tempore Narcissus, formā suae imāginis mōtus, ipse sē in aquā spectābat. Basia autem sibi sōlī dare volēbat. sōlus, a, um = alone (-ius variation) basium, basii (n) kiss specto (1) to look at forma, -ae (f) form, beauty moveo, movere, movi, motus - to move imago, imaginis (f) volo, velle, volui - to want

2) Eō ipsō tempore Iuppiter Tonans ipse sē suō fūlmine tangēbat. Alīī deī albīs sē nūbibus tegēbant et ridēbant. alius, alia, aliud - other fūlmen, fūlminis (n) lightning-bolt tango, tangere - to touch tego, tegere - to cover albus, a, um - white rideo, redere - to laugh nubes, nubis (f) cloud

3) Phaethon ipse sine patris auxiliō celerem eius currum caeruleum per caelum suīs manibus regere vult. Paucīs diēbus habenās celeris currūs longās sibi ipse rapiet et equōs in omnēs partēs caelī vertet. rego, regere - to guide, to direct verto, vertere - to turn auxiliū, -ii (n) help currus, -us (m) chariot pauci, -ae, a - few habena, -ae (f) reins rapio, rapere - to seize pars, partis (f) area, part vertere, -to turn

4) Echo, the beautiful maiden who alone in that forest herself to herself kept saying many sweet words about her love for Narcissus, whose eyes were always sad. who = quae whose = cuius
solus, a, um - alone silva, -ae (f) dico, dicere, dixi, dictus dulcis, dulce - sweet verbum, -ī (n) semper tristis, triste amor, amoris (m)

4.5) Narcissus, driven by a great love for himself, will look at his own face for many days. Do you want to see his face? I do not want to see it. He himself is not able to endure his own beauty. He wants to touch himself with his own right hand. ago, agere, egi, actus - to drive amor amoris (m) specto (1) facies, faciei (f) dies, diei (m) fero, ferre, tuli, latus - to endure possum, posse, potui + inf. manus, -us (f) dexter, dextera, dexterum fero, ferre - to endure

5) That nymph wanted to touch his face with her own hands but he wanted to touch himself and his own image, which he kept watching in the same water. volo, velle, volui nympha, -ae (f) tango, tangere volo, velle, volui which = quam facies, faciei (f) face specto (1) imago, imaginis (f) idem, eadem, idem - the same aqua, -ae (f)

6) Her form was beautiful to all but Narcissus was moved by his own beauty alone. He himself sat alone with himself for many days near that very spring. For that man there was a great love for himself. forma, -ae (f) omnis, omne moveo, movere, movi, motus solus, a, um sedeo, sedere, sedi dies, diei (m) prope + acc. fons, fontis (m) spring amor, amoris (m)

7) The situation itself was sad to many who had been moved by her great love for that handsome youth. res, rei (f) tristis, triste quī (pl.) = who moveo, movere, movi, motus amor, amoris (m) love iuvenis, iuvenis (m) youth pulcher, pulchra, pulchrum

8) This very citizen will soon throw himself into the middle of the events, which even great heroes fear. civis, civis (m) iacio, iacere mox in medias res which = quās vir, viri (m) hero timeo, timēre - to fear